

Construction Specifications Institute Codes (CSI)

Southwest Solutions Group® provides a wide range of Construction Specification Institute Codes (CSI) standardized storage solutions for all types of industries and facilities. We offer CSI specification shelving, mezzanines, automated storage systems, lockers, racks, cabinets, and moveable casework to meet your needs.

Our experienced sales engineers would be happy to meet with you to discuss your needs and find a CSI specified solution that would work for you. We also offer free space analyses so we can determine your exact needs and specifications before you commit to buying anything.
